Press Release - 03-01-2002 Children's Cultural Center Welcomes Tracy Byrne, Corporate Identity Consultant to the Board of Directors

Bucks County, Pennsylvania - The Children's Cultural Center (CCC) of Bucks County, a non-profit organization dedicated to the education, nurturing and overall success of Bucks County Children, at the January Board Meeting, voted Mrs. Tracy Sapperstein-Byrne, Corporate Identity Consultant of Doylestown, to the Board of Directors.

Tracy, herself a mother of three children ranging in ages from 2 to 8, member of the Central Bucks Chamber of Commerce and independent consultant, brings a strong identity, design and marketing background of 13 years to the Center's resources. Her skills include graphics, web design, marketing, public relations and publishing.

From Jackie Liney, Executive Director of the Children's Cultural Center, "Tracy has already begun our identity make-over, developing a regular press release schedule for systematic distribution of Center news and information, working on plans for our website and has even begun working to update the CCC's marketing materials.."

"I am so very thrilled to be a part of the Children's Cultural Center and am already having a great time working with Jackie and the other Board and Committee Members," Mrs. Byrne states. She goes on to say, "The CCC does so many good things for children in Bucks County, educating them in their own cultures, the culture of our area, helping them develop skills for successful employment and even placing computers in the hands of children who might otherwise have difficulty acquiring them."
