The Children's Cultural Center receives $2,500 Grant from Verizon Foundation

Bucks County, Pennsylvania - The Children's Cultural Center has announced the receipt of grant of $2,500 from Verizon Foundation to support Phase I of a new initiative, Travel Bucks County, the Villages of Council Rock. "Verizon Foundation's support will enable the Children's Cultural Center to develop a multi-media production in collaboration with Council Rock teaching staff, featuring local history of the District's five (5) municipalities", said Jackie Liney, Executive Director of the CCC. "This is the first step in retooling our Workshops on Wheels by providing technology based education for classroom teachers. Phase I production should be available to educators during the 2004-2005 school year."

"Verizon Foundation is pleased and proud to improve the quality of life for children, teens and adults throughout Bucks County," said Daniel J. Reavy, Director of External Affairs for Verizon Pennsylvania. "By building bridges to technology and computer access, we can partner with the Children's Cultural Center to provide valuable technology training and enrich our communities."

The Verizon Foundation is committed to supporting programs that create innovative e-solutions, help bridge the digital divide, foster computer literacy, educate our citizens and create a skilled workforce. The Verizon Foundation looks to forge and maintain partnerships around technology initiatives with local, regional, national and international organizations serving the needs of racially and ethnically diverse communities, people with disabilities, and the economically and socially disadvantaged.
