PRESS RELEASE: 9-8-2005

NEWS OF INTERNATIONAL DAY OCTOBER 16th 2005

Bucks County, Pennsylvania - Final touches are being made for the International Day Celebration 2005. The Children's Cultural Center of Bucks County cordially invites one and all to the Middletown Grange Fair Grounds in Wrightstown, PA, Sunday, October 16th from 11:00 am till 4:30 pm. This rain or shine event is held indoors and will feature cultural music & dance, food, fashion revue, exhibits, demonstrations, displays, bocce tournament, and special children's activities featuring the cultural heritage of adults and children throughout Bucks County. Scheduled performers and activities are listed on the International Day website.

While numerous organizations and commercial vendors have already agreed to display artifacts, there is room for more. Non Profit organizations, Commercial vendors and Bocce participants will find forms for entry at the event's web site (www.international-day.com). Or contact the Children's Cultural Center (215-230-0610) for more information and to become a part of the Celebration.

"The exhibits and entertainment will bring alive cultures of countries from around the world," said Jackie Liney, executive director of the Children's Cultural Center. "But, there are still more countries which should be represented. People in Bucks County have roots in nations on every continent."

Cub Scout and Girl Scout participants will earn credit toward certain achievements – visit www.international-day.com for details. Admission is FREE, with a $5.00 donation for parking for each vehicle.
