Press Release – 4/18/06

Bucks County, Pennsylvania – Attention Motor Sports fans! The Children's Cultural Center is pleased to announce an opportunity for you to meet author and Race Team owner Leonard Miller on NASCAR Day. Bring along family and friends to the McCafferty Quality Care Center, Route 213 and Woodbourne Road, on Friday, May 19th from 2:00 to 6:00 pm. Thanks to Todd Buch, owner of the McCafferty Auto Group, there will be a live remote broadcast by WXTU from 2:30 to 4:00. Fun, food, and prizes for the whole family!

Len will be on hand to speak about his experiences and sign copies of his biography, Silent Thunder which is under consideration to become a movie. His LMRacing Team won the NASCAR Old Dominion Speedway Late Model Stock Car Championship last year with driver Franklin Butler. Other recent awards include the 2005 Spirit of the Pioneer Award, 2005 Dennis Lindsey Award and the 2005 Old North State Award. The Miller Racing Group is the first African American owned racing team to win a track championship in the history of NASCAR.

“Mr. Miller resides in Washington Crossing and is a wonderful role model for our Bucks County Youth”, says Jackie Liney, Executive Director of the Childrens Cultural Center of Bucks County. “We are so pleased that he is appearing at this event to assist in our ‘Every Dollar Counts Campaign’.”
